Nicholas Fewtrell has specialised in Personal Injury, Professional Negligence and Commercial work throughout his career.

He is a member of the Personal Injuries Bar Association, the Professional Negligence Bar Association as well as being a founder member of the Northern Circuit Commercial Bar Association and as such regularly acts for both Claimants and Defendants in a range of cases, including many of very high value and complexity.

Over the last 20 years or so, Nick has been heavily involved in the historic child abuse litigation in which he has represented the interests of many of the country's major insurers and largest local authorities along with acting for various celebrities and major football clubs.

Outside Chambers, Nick is a keen golfer and a fan of most ball games, particularly cricket, soccer and American football.
