

Liam Kelly

2019 Inner Temple

lkelly@deanscourt.co.uk

| Education | Professional Associations | Appointments | Awards |
|---|---|---|---|
| University of Leeds – LLB Law | The Honourable Society of the Inner Temple | Attorney General's Junior Junior Barrister Scheme | William James and Mary Spence Award – University of Leeds |
| LLM Legal Practice incorporating the BPTC – Distinction | Northern Circuit Family Law Bar Association | Advocate (Formerly the Bar Pro Bono Unit) | Major Scholarship – The Honourable Society of the Inner Temple |
| Society of Trusts and Estates – Diploma in Trusts and Estates (England and Wales) – Ongoing | Society of Trusts and Estates Practitioners – Affiliate Chancery Bar Association | | Duke of Edinburgh Entrance Award - The Honourable Society of the Inner Temple Advocacy Scholarship – BPP University Law School Regional Programme Leaders Scholarship – BPP University Law School |

Areas of Specialism

Financial Remedy

Private Children

Public Children

TOLATA

Wills & Probate

Profile

Liam joined Chambers in September 2020 after completing pupillage under the tutelage of Patrick Gilmore. Liam accepts instructions across all areas of family law including public and private children law and financial remedy work associated with divorce.

Liam is regularly instructed to appear before the Family Court and has also appeared in the County Court and High Court.

Liam has a particular interest in quasi-chancery/family areas of law, including disputes arising with family property such as claims brought under the Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act 1996 and claims brought under Inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependants) Act 1975. Liam is an Affiliate of the Society of Trusts and Estates Practitioners and is currently enrolled on the Diploma in Trusts and Estates (England and Wales).

Prior to joining Chambers, Liam worked within the Business Process Outsourcing sector for over 8 years, leading and managing challenging campaigns, both in the UK and overseas. During his LLM, Liam worked as a paralegal at Hall

Brown Family Law, often assisting in high net worth financial remedy proceedings.

Notable Cases

[A Borough Council v E and Others \[2021\] EWHC 183 \(Fam\)](#)

Liam was instructed by the Local Authority in care proceedings with regards to a child with complex mental health needs subject to Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards Orders. Later led by Julia Cheetham QC, the Local Authority sought approval of the Court to place the child in an unregulated placement whilst subject to Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards Orders remained and OFSTED regulation was sought.

Deans Court Chambers: 24 St. John Street, Manchester, Greater Manchester M3 4DF
Telephone: 0161 214 6000 Email: clerks@deanscourt.co.uk