

Molly Gill

2019 Lincoln's Inn, gill@deanscourt.co.uk

Education

The University of Liverpool, LLB, First Class, achieved the highest mark in the cohort for the module Law of the European Court of Human Rights

The University of Law Leeds, BPTC (Very Competent)

The University of Law Leeds, LLM (Distinction)

Professional Associations

The Honourable Society of the Lincoln's Inn

Northern Circuit

Family Law Bar Association

Areas of Specialism

Family Law

Molly is a Barrister at Deans Court Chambers, having accepted tenancy after a highly successful pupillage.

During her pupillage, Molly was supervised by Kate Akerman who specialises in Family work. As with all pupils at Deans Court, Molly spent time with each of Deans Court's main practice teams: Crime & Regulatory, Civil and Family.

Prior to commencing pupillage, Molly was the Clerk to His Honour Judge Moore at Manchester Civil Justice Centre. Alongside her studies, Molly volunteered as a Mentor for Debate Mate, an international educational charity which aims to improve social mobility by teaching key employability skills and positive character attributes through after school debate programmes for schools in the UK.

In addition, Molly volunteered for Street Law, Yorkshire Tribunal Advocacy Project, Citizens Advice Bureau and student Legal Advice Clinics.

Deans Court Chambers: 24 St. John Street, Manchester, Greater Manchester M3 4DF
Telephone: 0161 214 6000 Email: clerks@deanscourt.co.uk